Madness

The people of Berk danced through the streets, many drunk and some were not. Astrid being one of the few, she kept having flashes of him, falling down and darkness wrapping around his body, but she smiled. He died in the worst way, the way of revenge. She had won once and for all, and nothing could be better.

Hiccup was off to the side, watching the twins drink. The two drunk to forget not to celebrate. The parade, was horrible for them, watching as everyone laughed as they sent the body out to sea, lit up with fire.

Everyone, even Spitelout was dancing around, but he was one, like the twins, who drank to forget. Hiccup knew in a way this is how it was to be, but he missed him. In his annoying way wormed itself into his heart.

Snoutlout.

"Let's get out of here Toothless" Hiccup said to the dark night fury. They flew away and Astrid clenched her teeth, frusterated.

The wind blew everywhere around Hiccup pulling him and Toothless, as they raced along it, too the cove. Landing the wind stoped as if it had finished it's job.

>Snoutlout opened his eyes as he heard the sounds of crying.

Standing and walking towards them he saw Hiccup. He was curled up slightly and rested against Toothless. Walking towards him, he passed through branches and roots on the ground. Snoutlout leaned down staring at him, the one he tried to kill, but ended up falling in the process.

"You aren't supposed to cry for me, Hiccup" he said, because hurt knowing that even though he almost killed him, for something as stupid as Astrid. It was no secret to any of the villagers that he loved the girl, but she had loved Hiccup.

Saying that in spite no one really knew what Hiccup thought, after he got the girl, he didn't do anything to keep her.

Snoutlout walked away from the boy knowing there was nothing he could do, to stop the tears.

The parade was still going and now had hit full swing, the Twins had left, drunkenness not working for them, Fishlegs hadn't left though as he sat in the Great Hall writing about the tales of Hookfang and Snoutlout. Astrid plastered her drunken self to another, and were walking away.

Snoutlout thought about everything, all the times he was mean to Hiccup. Remembering what Hel had offered.

"I could restart your life, sweetie, if you wish it"

It wouldn't work though, but he needed to see everything one more time, Because he was too much of a jerk to change, but he felt his heart tug, as he thought of Hiccup crying, and his mind was now set.

We're Rivals, even if your dead... for know, because I've finally seen the light, and I have finally realized what you need.
